

MERCURY

Edition | 2024

Part of the Luna suite, the Mercury has been designed to impress, the Mercury coffee and side tables effortlessly combines style and function.

The black metal frame not only adds a contemporary touch but also ensures durability and stability. The mocha elm tabletop not only looks visually appealing but also provides ample space for displaying decorative items or serving refreshments.

Whether you have a modern or traditional office space, these tables are a perfect choice to elevate your interior design.
